

April 25th, 2007

Capcom Co., Ltd.

Capcom Co., Ltd. receives “Award for Excellence in Internet Investor Relations” for fifth consecutive year – recognized for its active role in expanding site content –

Capcom Co., Ltd. is pleased to announce that it has been selected as a recipient of the Daiwa Investor Relations Co., Ltd.’s (Daiwa IR) “Award for Excellence in Internet Investor Relations” for the fifth consecutive year.

Recipients of the “Award for Excellence in Internet Investor Relations” are selected from among 1,849 major publicly listed companies by Daiwa IR based upon their objective evaluation of the contents provided by each company’s investor relations website.

Capcom strives to utilize its homepage in providing investors with the latest news in a timely fashion. To this effect, Capcom will continue to improve existing content and add new content to our investor relations website. Demand for investment options from individual investors continues to grow, so in response to the expanding needs of its investors, Capcom will soon begin audio and video podcast distribution services, as well as provide content tailored directly for individual investors. Capcom’s investor relations site continues to be highly regarded as evidenced by its selection as an Excellent Corporate Website on “Nikko Investor Relations Co., Ltd.’s Ranking of Listed Corporation Websites” along with being honored with fourth place on the Gomez Consulting Co., Ltd. “Investor Relations Site Ranking”.

Capcom remains fully committed to its responsibility as a publicly traded company with regards to establishing a system for the timely, complete, and accountable disclosure of all information pertinent to investors.