Notice Regarding COVID-19 Infection

Capcom Co., Ltd. (Capcom) today confirmed that an employee at one of its group companies (Chuo-ku, Osaka) has contracted novel coronavirus (COVID-19).

In cooperation with local health agencies, Capcom is carrying out the following measures to prevent further spread of the infection.

- Reviewing the employee's movements, activities and people who may have had close contact with the employee in question
- Considering the issue of stay-at-home orders for employees who had close contact with the employee in question
- Disinfecting areas such as the office in which the employee in question works

Capcom is committed to prioritizing the safety of its employees, customers and business partners and will work with the relevant authorities in carrying out the necessary measures to prevent the spread of infection.
