Capcom Co., Ltd. receives “Award for Excellence in Internet Investor Relations” For Fourth Consecutive Year

Capcom Co., Ltd. is pleased to announce that it has been selected as a recipient of Daiwa Investor Relations Co., Ltd.’s (Daiwa IR) “Award for Excellence in Internet Investor Relations” (PR for Investors).

Recipients of the “Award for Excellence in Internet Investor Relations” are selected from among major publicly listed 1,356 companies by Daiwa IR based upon their objective evaluation of the contents provided by each company’s investor relations website.

Capcom strives to utilize its homepage in providing investors with the latest news in a timely fashion. To this effect, Capcom will continue to improve existing content and add new content to our investor relations website, such as the recently improved stock price indicator and an expanded IR reference library.

Capcom remains fully committed to its responsibility as a publicly traded company with regards to establishing a system for the timely, complete, and accountable disclosure of all information pertinent to investors.
