Capcom Announces Revision in the Launch of “Monster Hunter 4”

Capcom Co., Ltd. (Capcom) has decided to push back the launch of “Monster Hunter 4” for the Nintendo 3DS™ from March 2013 to the summer of 2013 (tentative).

Capcom had planned to begin selling this title, which is the latest addition to the popular “Monster Hunter” series of games, in March 2013. The decision has now been made to postpone the launch date based on the decision that further quality enhancements are needed in order to meet the expectations and wishes of users.

Capcom apologizes to all stakeholders and “Monster Hunter” fans who are anxiously awaiting this new game for this delay and asks for their understanding as development on this exciting title continues.
