Notice Regarding COVID-19 Infection (as of April 15)

Capcom Co., Ltd. (Capcom) confirmed today that one of its employees who is currently on a long-term leave of absence has contracted novel coronavirus (COVID-19).

In order to prevent further spread of the infection, Capcom has worked with the relevant authorities and local health agencies and has finished both disinfection of the area and an investigation into others who may have had contact with the employee in question.

Capcom is committed to prioritizing the safety of employees, their families, our business partners and the public and is working with the relevant authorities in carrying out the appropriate measures. Further, the company hopes for a speedy recovery and offers its support.

Capcom sincerely appreciates your continued understanding and support.
