Capcom to Open its First Directly Operated Overseas Store!

- Grand opening of Capcom Store Taipei at Shin Kong Mitsukoshi Taipei on March 20, 2026! -

Capcom Co., Ltd. today announced that it will open Capcom Store Taipei, the company’s first directly operated overseas location, on Friday, March 20, 2026 at Shin Kong Mitsukoshi Taipei, Xinyi Place A11 in Taipei City.

Under Capcom’s Single Content Multiple Usage strategy, which leverages Capcom’s popular intellectual properties (IP) across a wide range of media, the company has expanded beyond traditional arcade-style outlets in recent years to include new formats such as cafés and retail-focused stores in its Arcade Operations business. As of now, the company is operating 59 facilities*.

Capcom Store serves as a specialty retail location offering merchandise featuring popular characters from Capcom titles including Resident Evil, Monster Hunter, and Street Fighter. The opening of this new store will establish an additional touchpoint for fans in Taiwan, further enhancing awareness of our IP in the region. Going forward, the company will continue to expand store openings both domestically and internationally, broadening opportunities to engage with fans around the world.

Capcom aims to be a company that captivates people around the world with our best-in-class immersive content and will continue to maximize the value of its rich library of game content through multifaceted initiatives, thereby creating new earnings opportunities and enhancing corporate value.

*As of December 31, 2025
